

Farewell From Jim and Betty Ann

Dear Friends and Valued Customers,

After many wonderful years, we've made the heartfelt decision to retire. Running Bearly Read Books has been a true joy, and we are incredibly grateful for your support, loyalty, and friendship over the years.

The Next Steps...

As you know, Bearly Read Books is a unique shop with a deep appreciation for used, rare, and antiquarian books. It has been our privilege to share this passion with readers, collectors, and fellow book lovers from near and far.

As we look toward retirement, our greatest hope is to find someone who shares that same love for books and community—someone who would like to purchase the business and continue operating the store.

Antiquarian and Used Book Sale

In the meantime, we will be holding an inventory reduction sale to lighten our shelves while we search for the right buyer. This is a wonderful opportunity to find special treasures and support the shop one more time in its current form.

If we are unable to sell the business, we do plan to continue operating on a smaller scale by selling books online only.

Thank you again for being part of the Bearly Read Books story. We'll keep you updated with any developments. If you or someone you know might be interested in purchasing the bookstore, please don't hesitate to get in touch. With warmest regards,

Betty Ann Sharp and Jim Ellis
